David Kamp speaks at “Sense of Place” 2009 Conference

New York, NY – August 25, 2009 – David Kamp, FASLA, LF, Principal of Dirtworks, PC is one of five international speakers at the “Sense of Place” 2009 Conference from September 2-5, 2009 to be held in Cornwall, UK. A returning speaker at this bi-annual conference, David Kamp will speak on “Connecting People and Place: A Design Perspective.”

The conference, sponsored by Sensory Trust, addresses how placemaking can help build strong, resilient communities.

The Sensory Trust (www.sensorytrust.org.uk) promotes and implements “an inclusive approach to design and management of outdoor space, richer connections between people and place, and equality of access for all people, regardless of age, disability or background.”

Dirtworks, PC (www.dirworks.us) is an internationally recognized and award-winning landscape architecture firm. Its designs enhance the restorative quality of the natural environment. The firm, founded in 1995, provides clients with the creativity and technical knowledge essential to project design and site planning. Dirtworks, PC provides a full range of professional services with a staff of technically trained and design-oriented landscape architects.
