

PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Contact: Deanna C Medina (dmedina@dirtworks.us)
(212) 529-2263 Voice / (212) 505-0904 Fax

June 28, 2011

David Kamp, FASLA, LF elected to the National Academy

New York, NY-- David Kamp, FASLA, LF, president and founder of Dirtworks Landscape Architecture, PC has been elected to the National Academy as a National Academician (NA). Landscape architect and National Academician ('94) Peter G. Rolland, FASLA nominated David Kamp. Thirty-two artists and architects comprise the distinguished group of 2011 National Academicians in recognition of their distinguished and continuing achievements in the arts and architecture.

As an NA Elect, David joins an illustrious group of America's most influential artists and architects of the past two hundred years which includes: Chuck Close, Maya Lin, Robert Rauschenberg, Wayne Thiebaud, Cy Twombly, Billie Tsien, Tod Williams and Frank Gehry. The 2011 National Academician Elects include Christo, Walter Chatham, Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown, Elizabeth Diller and Ricardo Scofidio, to name a few. David will be inducted into the Academy on October 2011.

###

About the National Academy

The National Academy (www.nationalacademy.org) was founded in 1825 to encourage the development of visual art in America through education and exhibition. Every year, leaders in the field of art and architecture are granted membership through the nomination of current Academicians.

About Dirtworks, PC

Dirtworks, PC is an internationally recognized and award-winning landscape architecture firm. Its designs enhance the restorative quality of the natural environment. The firm, founded in 1995 by David Kamp, FASLA, LF, provides clients with the creativity and technical knowledge essential to project design and site planning.